

Donation Guidelines

North Bingham County District Library gratefully accepts new books that may be considered for inclusion in our collection or to be sold at our Friends of the Library Book Sales. We also accept used books, movie DVDs, books on CD, and other similar materials in good condition. Once donated, all items become the property of North Bingham County District Library and may be added to our collections, placed on our by-donation bookshelves, sold at our Library Book Sales, traded, sold, donated to other libraries or entities, or otherwise discarded.

Donations are accepted during operating hours. We do not pick up donations. Occasionally, due to the volume of recent donations or lack of storage, we may stop accepting donations for a period of time.

We do have a few limitations on what we accept. Items we do not accept are:

- Unsellable books...moldy, burned, chewed, smoke or water damaged, missing pages, broken bindings, etc.
- Books heavily written in/highlighted
- Encyclopedias
- Professional Journals/Reference
- Law Books, Statutes, Case Law, etc.
- Personal Journals/Homemade books
- Condensed Books (Reader's Digest)
- Time Life Series Books
- Certain time sensitive books that are more than 5 years old including: computer books, investment guides, travel guides, test prep, health/medical books, and textbooks.

Please call and check before bringing newspapers or magazines.

Library staff cannot assign a value to donated items, but can provide a receipt acknowledging the donation. If considering donation for tax benefit, it is up to the donor to determine a fair market value of their donation.

Thank you for thinking of North Bingham County District Library!
